It's The Cross I Have To Bear

Noel Due

Have you ever heard the phrase “It’s the cross I have to bear”? It’s usually associated with a problem that has no hope of going away, we just have to grit our teeth and bear it. You might guess the phrase comes from the Bible and you’d be right but its meaning is dramatically different. Noel Due will be talking about the real meaning of “the cross I have to bear.”

WELCOME

“Communion Invitation” - Dear Friends in Christ, if you are a visitor who is a baptised believer and not a member of the Lutheran Church but believe that you will be receiving the body and blood of our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, then an open invitation is extended to you.

Non-communing adults & children are encouraged to come for a blessing and are asked to keep their hands by their sides.

Please join us for a cuppa and a biscuit between services.

Visitors Cards You will find these cards on the ends of the pews.

We would like you to fill in the details and place in the offering bag or give to an usher or the pastor as you leave the church.

Welcome

We welcome all visitors & pray you are made to feel at home here in our congregations.

TODAY at the 10:45am service we celebrate God's presence through baptism.

Pheobe Burnell has been brought here today to be baptised. Please pray for her parent Kimberley Bald & thank God for His gift of Baptism.

Would whoever borrowed the CD's that were by the PA System in the church please return them when they have finished listening to them, as they are used for weddings, funerals and worship services. Thanks
Marcus
