20th Oct- The Deepest Darkness -Noel

Due

Have you ever experienced a low time in your life when there seemed no way out? It can be a dark and lonely place. Sometimes there's a clear reason and other times it just doesn't make sense. Noel Due tells us that these valleys are a normal part of life, and that Jesus promises to lead us through them, no matter how long it takes.

KAIROS PRISON MINISTRY

Tuesday 15th Oct to Friday 18th October.

Please consider being involved in the Prayer Vigil occurring during these days. Google 3dayol.org select prayer vigil and scroll down to Mobilong & follow directions. OR approach Jan at the office so she can add you to the roster.

Someone from England is praying for this vigil—perhaps if you cannot at this time you may consider another time overseas. Check out the roster.

ALSO. Is there anyone who may be able to host a member of the Kairos Team during this week if they need you?

WELCOME

to the Fellowship Group from Tea Tree Gully who will be joining us at the 10:45am service today. We pray they enjoy their time with us and find the service uplifting. Christ Church members are welcome to join them at the Bridgeport Hotel at 12:30pm for lunch.

To all who brought food & helped at the funerals.

Much appreciated.

Ladies, when you kindly bring your food for funerals please mark your plates, dishes etc or better still put the food in an ice cream container, as some ladies are not always getting back their plates even when marked.

Thank you
Joyce Stiller.
