Welcome to all worshipping with us on Sunday

Matthew 23:1-12:

Our Lord here warns against the emphasis placed on following human authority in the teaching of God's word rather than God and Christ himself. The scribes and Pharisees placed a great deal of importance on following burdensome and detailed outward activities not actually contained in the law of Moses itself. They assumed authority without setting a personal example. Their own recognition was based upon empty ritual such as wearing a leather container (phylactery) on the arms and forehead containing Bible texts, and seeking positions which elevated them in a social sense. The follower of Jesus is to permit the word of God to instruct in such a way that God can rule in one's life in love to him and service to one's neighbour.

PRAYER:

We pray for everyone joining in our services today. May we remember the loved ones of the past and the happy memories that remain with us. Be with each other and support and comfort each other sharing God's Peace and love.

All Welcome – come along to events organised by the MVLC and form a close relationship with fellow members.

Cut off for notices sent to either Office is Wednesday 10am for the Newsletter and midday on Thursdays for the Bulletin.
