Murray Valley Lutheran Community

Friday 18th October 2024

Welcome to all worshipping with us

The Praying Farmer.

Art draws our attention. They say, “beauty is in the eye of the beholder.” Art is a different beauty to everyone. The way we see art can depend on our emotions and experiences at the time. The same with the beauty of creation – how many colours has Uluru? When I first saw the Silo art at Lameroo, I was sad. I had just ridden from Parkes and Forbes with full dams and rivers, bumper crops and abundant feed to my home country, the Mallee and Murraylands, of drought, and battling frosted crops. I am farmer at heart. I came to Lameroo and saw a farmer praying. The artist, ‘Smug’, inspired me to pray for our Mallee farmers and communities – such is art. I have been told that the Lameroo farmer is not necessarily praying. Someone said the farmer is simply blowing warm air into his cold hands. Good art provides something for everyone. Thankyou ‘Smug’. 3.00pm today at the Lameroo Silos the Christian Community will be praying for our Mallee farmers and communities. Please join us. You are welcome to stay after for a church service at the Lameroo Lutheran church – light meal provided.

Come and Pray ~ Lameroo Silo Sunday 20th October
For those who have booked a seat on the bus to Lameroo please be at Holy Cross car park at 12.15 bus leaves at 12.30pm

Pray for:

- ✠ Pray for the families of Bert Hyam (passed away 10th October) and Neil Schubert (passed away 12th October) and Glen Koop as they prepare for their funerals. Pray for Kathy and David Kleinig & family as they mourn the loss of Kathy's mother Audrey.
- ✠ Pray for all those struggling with ill health, especially Lynette Little in Murray Bridge Hospital, those recovering, for all carers, doctors, nurses and specialists.
- ✠ Pray for farmers and their families, all those who live in rural communities and towns, help them to cope with the drought and loss of income. Pray for all those travelling and attending the Prayer Vigil at the Lameroo Silo's on Sunday 20th.
- ✠ Pray for everyone as they come to terms with the decisions made at General Synod including the ordination of women.
- ✠ Pray for all those who have had special birthdays or anniversaries recently; especially Reg Herrmann who celebrated his 90th birthday on 14th October.
