

“LIFE THROUGH THE LENS”

HEAD DOWN – TAIL UP – HARD AT IT.

Last Monday was World Bee Day, but “Buzz” (I know – it’s a bit lame -but there you go.) Buzz didn’t know and he didn’t care. He was too busy going about the business for which he had been made; for what he had been designed. Collecting nectar, collecting pollen, pollinating flowers so they would reproduce. It was early morning; the flower was not fully open. Buzz worked around that flower. He kept coming back to it. You could almost hear him saying, “I know it is down there. This why I am”. Finally, he squeezed into the flower, loaded up; wriggled out and flew off to continue doing what he was made for.

How about us? Do we know what we were made for? What is to be our purpose in life?

Jesus’ answer to that question is quite clear, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind; and, ‘Love your neighbour as yourself’”. Check out Matthew chapter twenty-two, verses thirty-seven to thirty-nine

How do you love God the way He asks? Trust Him. Trust what He says and most importantly believe Him when He says “I love you. That is why my Son died; He paid so you can be close to Me.

As for, “Love your neighbour as yourself”. I would suggest we should all be able to work that one out for ourselves – or maybe we need to talk to God a lot more about it.

God bless,
