

“LIFE THROUGH THE LENS”

000 EMERGENCY

Generally, we don't give them much attention unless we need their help, yet regardless of how often we think about them, they are always there; somewhere in the background: Members of what we commonly call "The Emergency Service" people.

We often treat God the same way. We trust or hope he is real, but don't take him too seriously until we need to dial HELP! Even then we may wonder, "Will He help? Even the emergency service people may not help as we expect. God who knows best how to help gives this promise; "Call on me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honour me." (Psalm 50: verse fifteen)

There will be times in life when you feel lost, not sure which way to turn and feel no one can help or even cares. A feeling of not only lost but also alone. No one is there to guide, to save. That is the time to remember the words of Jesus; "I am with you always." Check out Matthew chapter twenty-eight, verse twenty.

We honour men and women when they put their life on the line to save someone; to give them another chance at life.

In love for us and because of His Father's love for us Jesus put his life on the cross; so we have the chance for a full life.

It is great to know that even when in stupidity or ignorance we turn away from him and head into danger, Jesus doesn't turn away, He follows us where ever we go. Remember; "I am with you always."

Cheers,
