

“LIFE THROUGH THE LENS”

THE MISSING PIECE

Have you sometimes thought, “I am not much”, “If I wasn’t here, who would care, or miss me?”

Imagine a jigsaw puzzle with a piece missing. It mightn't look too bad, but it is still incomplete; a ‘blank’ where there should be colour.

Believe it or not, in all of time there is a unique place that can only be filled by the unique and special “YOU!”.

The Bible tells us, God himself invites us to be part of his plan. Even when we mess up our life, He continues to offer us a fresh start, a new part, a new life through the love and sacrifice of Jesus. A life that is meant to be part of His complete image of time. An image filled with support, care, love, personal and community growth

Talk to God about His plan for where you fit into that image. You might be surprised what part of that image your life is meant to fill.

Letting someone shape my life can be scary. Will they plan what is best for me? Can I handle the challenges, the fears, my inner struggles?

God knows you so intimately, your thoughts, fears and doubts. Take time to read Psalm 129. He knows how many hairs on your head, and not one of them will fall out without Him knowing about it. Check Matthew, chapter 10, verses 29 & 30. He cares about you being part of His great image of life.

May you enjoy letting God shape you into his week.

Kevin Schrapel